

URGENT NOTICE FOR POINT MUGU FAMILY HOUSING RESIDENTS

The local authorities are expecting and anticipating heavy rainfall and flooding on Naval Air Station Point Mugu NBVC again throughout this evening and into the morning. Please be prepared to evacuate your residence by order of the Commanding Officer on short notice.

For those residents that had high water approaching their home last night and for those residents that were evacuated last night, we ask that you volunteer to begin evacuation at this time and proceed to a friend's residence at Port Hueneme, Catalina Heights, or the Ventura County area if they can provide accommodations.

Those personnel that have special medical requirements or needs should contact Pride at 982-6789 for further directions. You will be treated on a case-by-case basis.

Please keep the following in mind throughout the evening:

- If you are later told to evacuate, you will be told where to evacuate.
 - Locations anticipated are: Point Mugu Gymnasium or Theater.
- Be prepared to evacuate on very short notice (30 – 60 minutes).
- Have personal items packed and ready to go.
- Move your furniture and other items that could get damaged off of the floor if possible.
- If you can make accommodations for your pet elsewhere, then do so.
- Vehicles can be moved to higher ground behind Buildings 66 and 67 (PW on Laguna Road).
- Pets will be allowed in the evacuation areas only if they are in approved pet carriers.
- Once you evacuate, turn off your lights and TAPE THE PINK PIECE OF PAPER THAT ACCOMPANIES THIS NOTICE TO YOUR FRONT DOOR ONCE YOU LEAVE to alert emergency response personnel that you have vacated your home.

Updates can be obtained at on the NBVC Television station channel 8, Radio stations 1610AM and 1520AM, NBVC Hotline number 989-8786 and the NBVC Webpage.
